Getting to Athens – Babaylan-EU Congress

1. Those who will come Thursday, Nov. 5 can be accommodated by their hosts.
2. Please let us know who they are and the time of their arrival so their hosts/lodging could be arranged in advance.
3. Airport to use in Athens – International Airport, Eleftherios Venizelos.
4. Before taking the bus to the city, buy bus ticket (3.20 Euro) outside arrival building.
5. Take bus X95 going to Syntagma. It is the terma or bus terminal of buses going to/from the airport. When in Syntagma, cross the road in front of the Greek Parliament Building, facing the parliament, proceed to your right and look for the bus stop (stasi) of trolley (yellow bus) number 5 or 11.
6. Buy first the ticket (esiteria) from the nearest mini store (pereptero) worth 1euro. You can also take a taxi near the bus stop if you prefer. Either you take a trolley or a taxi, get off at bus stop Plateia Amerikis, then call 6947558628 (Pat's cell number) or 2108664527 (MNCS landline). Diwata will meet and bring you to MNCS.
7. Meeting place for arrival, registration and the congress is the Munting Nayon Cultural School (MNCS) at

Address: 18 Mithymnis,
Plateia Amerikis, Kypseli, Athens.
If lost call Pat Boneo – 6947558628 (mobile)
MNCS – 2108664527 (landline)
8. Those who will come Friday, Nov. 6 will go directly to MNCS. They'll be met by their hosts there.
